

Staff Profile: Kieron Pamment, Assistant Manager, Corporate Services

1. Why did you choose Plus Accounting?

I chose Plus Accounting, because after a conversation with Paul it was clear to me that working for Plus would give me the opportunity to further my skills and use those skills to help our clients.

2. If you could change one thing in the tax system, what would it be and why?

I would abolish stamp duty land tax on properties up to £500,000.

3. If you could give your 18-year-old self one piece of advice what would it be?

I would advise myself to set out short term personal targets and work as hard as I can to achieve them.

4. What was your very first job?

My very first job was working with a construction company doing ad hoc labour and building work.

5. What hobbies do you have outside of work?

I play both football and golf outside of work and I also go to the gym as much as my spare time allows.

6. Is it still a good time to be starting a new business in the current climate?

As I speak the current UK market is uncertain, it is however still a great time to start a new business. Further advancements in technology mean it is now easier to run a business and stay on top of your finances ensuring that the future looks bright for any start up.

7. If you suddenly became financially independent, what would you miss most about your job?

I would miss the interaction on a daily basis with my colleagues and the clients I deal with.

8. What is the difference between a top ten 10 employer and a smaller firm?

Within a smaller firm every client matters no matter how big or small.

9. If you could meet a celebrity, dead or alive, who would it be?

Tiger Woods

10. Describe yourself in three words?

Motivated, competitive and friendly
