Recently Qualified Auditor and Accountant – November 2024

An opportunity has arisen for an ambitious and motivated newly qualified accountant to join the team at Plus Accounting Chartered Accountants in Brighton. The successful applicant will be looking to fulfil their career ambitions and demonstrate they have what it takes to progress to the role of an assistant audit manager in the next twelve months.

The role is currently split 70:30 between completing Audits and preparing Accounts so experience in both areas is vital.

Role Overview:

1. Planning, leading, and completing audits.
2. Meeting and communicating with clients.
3. Preparation of financial statements.

Requirements:

To be considered for this role, the successful candidate will need to show they have experience of leading audit teams, communicating with Finance Directors and client staff during planning, fieldwork and completion stages and ensuing audits are carried out efficiently and effectively.

We seek individuals who demonstrate initiative, possess excellent IT skills, and can communicate effectively with clients and team members at all levels, are highly motivated, and exhibit high professional standards.

What We Offer:

Plus Accounting offers excellent opportunities for career development and progression, providing full support to help candidates grow their knowledge and skills. We are a forward-thinking firm with a modern approach, offering a comprehensive range of benefits, including a Wellbeing Programme and social activities.

B Corp Certification:
