This role supports our expanding tax services, offering first-class advice to our ever-growing community of clients and providing opportunities for career progression to Manager for the right candidate.

Role Overview

As a Corporate Tax Senior/Assistant Manager, you will primarily support and report to our Senior Corporate Tax Manager while collaborating with audit and accounts directors and managers. This role involves delivering specialist tax advisory services and compliance support, complementing our audit, accounting, and advisory services. You'll work with a diverse client base, including SME business owners, high-net-worth individuals, and Finance Directors of domestic and international companies.

Key Responsibilities

- Perform tax reviews of company accounts and prepare elections and claims.
- Review capital allowances on property acquisitions and developments
- Prepare and review R&D and Creative Industries tax relief claims
- Prepare HMRC clearance letters and client advice on venture capital schemes (e.g., EIS/SEIS), share transfers/reorganisations and Employment-Related Securities.
- Assist with tax-efficient profit extraction, corporate residency, and international tax.
- Provide occasional support on company secretarial matters (e.g., minutes, share paperwork).

Candidate Requirements

- ATT and/or CTA qualified, or ACA/ACCA qualified with 2-3+ years of practical tax experience.

Corporate Tax Senior / Assistant Manager

- Experience or knowledge in key areas (corporate tax, R&D relief, EMI schemes).
- Strong IT and communication skills, initiative, and attention to detail.
- Motivated to engage in client advisory and grow within the role.

What We Offer

- Plus Rewards Scheme: Supporting professional development and team collaboration.
- Wellbeing Programme: Prioritising employee health and work-life balance.
- Work-from-Home Options: Laptop and screens provided.
- Insurance & Healthcare: Group life insurance and health care.
- Social Events: Regular gatherings and team events.
